

Happy Hounds 4-H Club

2010 Canine Classes

Happy Hounds announces the registration of all interested 4-H members for the Canine Obedience and Fitting & Showing Classes. Classes will be held at the Howard County Fair Grounds (watch for signs on the first day to indicate which buildings). Classes begin Thursday, March 18th and end on Thursday, May 13th (classes are for 8 weeks. Classes will not be held the week of the Sheep and Wool Festival).

- ✦ Beginner Classes: For any one who has not taken beginner obedience classes before. (Experience of the dog is not the determining factor - we teach handlers how to train their dogs.) Beginner Obedience Classes will run from 6:30 to 7:30 pm & Beginner Fitting & Showing Classes from 7:30 to 8:30 pm. You may take either or both of the classes.

- ✦ Advanced Classes: For any handler who has had beginner obedience classes with Happy Hounds. (Experience of the dog is not the determining factor - we teach handlers how to train their dogs.) Advanced Fitting & Showing Classes will run from 6:30 to 7:30 pm & Advanced Obedience Classes from 7:30 to 8:30 pm. You may take either or both of the classes.

The Dog Identification Card (obtained from 4H office/or 4H leader), Vaccination Records, & County Dog License record MUST be mailed in with your registration form. Classes are free for Happy Hounds 4H Club members (you must be a member for three months prior to April 1st of the current year). Non-members may take one or both classes offered for $25.00. Fill out the attached form and mail it back by March 1st. Howard County 4-H members and project dogs must have successfully completed Happy Hounds sponsored training classes prior to entry in the Howard Co. Dog Match, Howard Co. Fair Canine Show and/or MD State Fair Dog Show and carry the 4H dog project. Space is limited so send in your registration form quickly. If you have any questions, email Sue Schuster at des_sms@yahoo.com, or call 410-290-8004.

Maryland Cooperative Extension programs are open to all citizens without regard to race, color, gender, disability, religion, age, sexual orientation, parental status, or national origin.
